Dear Seniors.

As editors of the 1982 Yearbook, it is our pleasure to present this book to you in hope of creating an enjoyable look at our four years at Brockton High. We hope this book will bring back many memories of happy hours and never ending friendships which we have all encountered over the years.

Much time, effort, and hard work went into the planning and production of this book, "The 12th Round!". In this book, we have tried to use our mascot as a symbol for the four years we have experienced at B.H.S. We carefully planned our artwork, copy, and photography to capture the meaning of our school.

We would like to congratulate each one of you and extend our warmest wishes for happiness and success. Also, we wish to thank all those involved in the planning and production of this book. Our special gratitude goes to our advisor, Ms. Anania, for all her support and help in our work on "The 12th Round!".

Sincerely,
The Editors of the 1982 Yearbook

MANNE MANNE MANNE TO THE MANNE

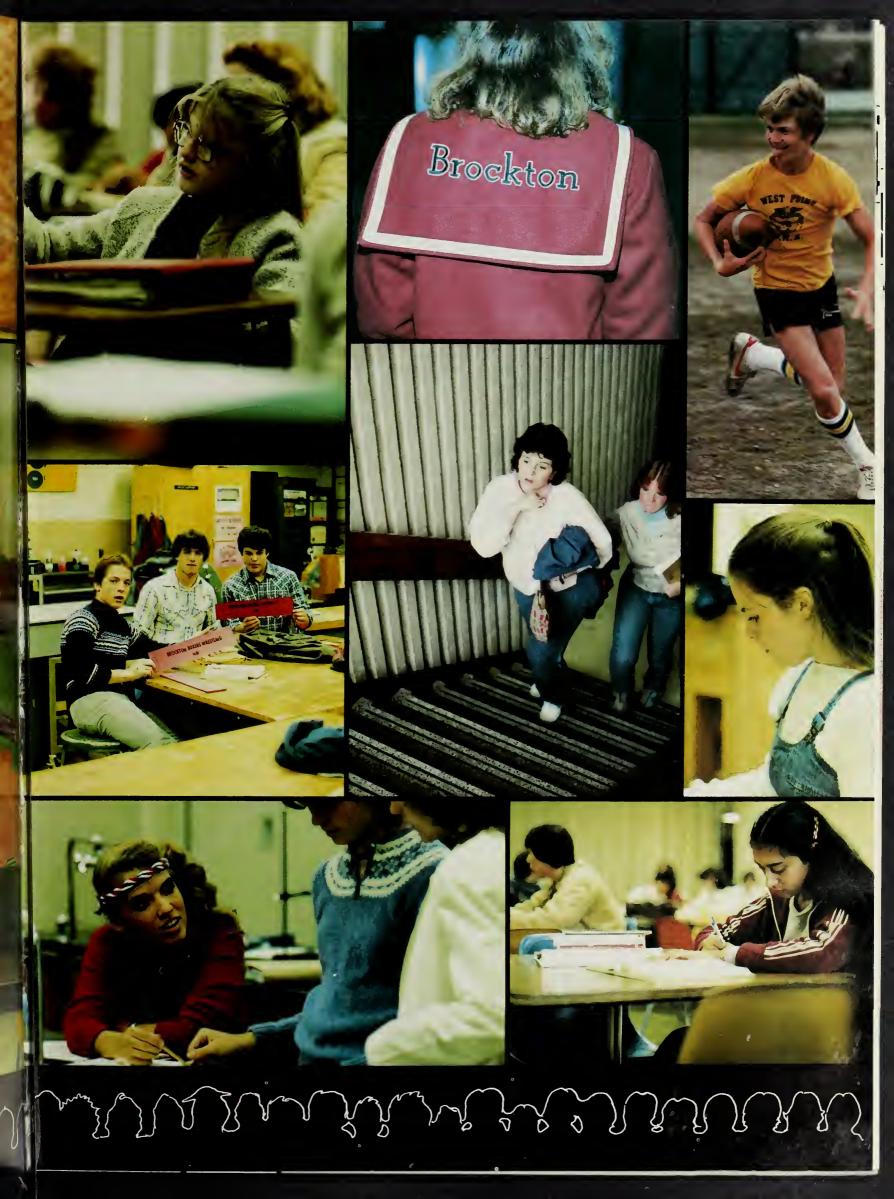

FUNDAMINAN WAS MARIE

In commemoration of Rocky Marciano, Brockton's own world heavy weight champion, the Brockton teams became the Brockton Boxers. The fighting "Boxer spirit" was born then and, having grown stronger through the years, is still alive in our class, the Class of 1982

In fact, within the last few years we have all experienced a renewal of class spirit. We have watched Marvin Hagler rise to become the world middleweight champion. We have supported our football team, our volleyball team, and all athletic teams in their rise to dominance in their area. Many of us were saddened and somehow astonished by our football team's defeat in the 1980 Superbowl. Yet, the fact that we have shared our disappointments has made us stronger, and also a bit closer.

This pride and spirit has further manifested itself in our day-to-day experiences at Brockton High School. Today, as we find ourselves in the "twelfth round of our school careers", the spirit has seemed to become personified in each one of us. This spirit can be felt in our interaction with one another, our support of each other, and our shared excitement about approaching graduation day.

At the outset of our elementary school careers, we each came from our own "corners" fearful. The first few rounds of our bout were fun and carefree. We had our worries, "What had mom packed in our lunchbox?" and, "What would we do when called on to read aloud in class?" Yet each time we seemed to be "saved by the bell". Though young, we felt the importance of the remaining rounds. We were aware of an opponent, a force, at times a guidance, at other times a hindrance.

In junior high our opponent, though unknown and intangible to us, became stronger; almost invincible. Now our minds were troubled with more complex matters. Relationships were no longer simple. The pressure, too, was greater than it ever had been. We all wore Levi's, chinos and alligator shirts in an attempt to fit in. Somehow it seemed all of our attempts fell short and we felt a victory was nowhere in sight.

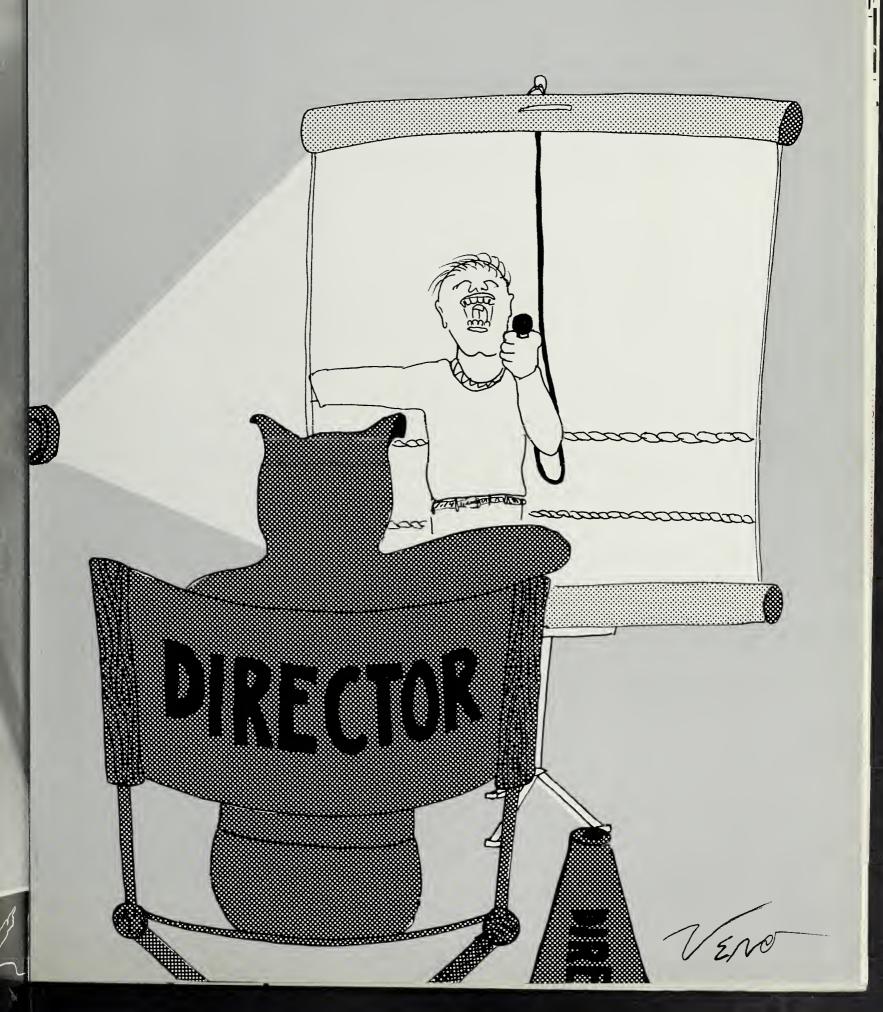

As we entered Brockton High School, we entered the final rounds of our bout. These were to be the most difficult. They would require great discipline yet would reap an even greater reward. We entered our freshman year with a new enthusiasm. It was difficult giving up our security to become one of the crowd; one in over 5000 students attending Brockton High. Our "opponent" became stronger, yet so did we. We were reinforced by our desires to succeed. Ironically, in a school as large and ominous as Brockton High, we each discovered our own sense of individuality. The pressure to conform no longer existed. Our class diversified into a combination of people as interesting as they were different.

We entered our sophomore class somewhat fatigued. To our dismay the excitement of the first year was gone. We became weighted down with new responsibilities. Several times we were knocked down by our invisible adversary. The temptation to take the ten count was great. Yet, each time we got off of the canvas, ready to ensue our aims with a renewed ambition.

In our junior year we finally realized the importance of our bout. We could almost feel the approaching climax and we knew we were prepared.

Finally it came. The twelfth and final round. We had entered the first round alone and scared. Now we entered the last round together, yet still scared. Now we recognized our great opponent. We could see, feel and touch the strength of this "enemy". To our dismay our foe was, in fact, an ally. We discovered that our opponent had been within us. It was, in fact, our own fears and doubts. We realized now that we had met the challenge. We were the champions.

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations on your impending graduation from Brockton High School.

This class has distinguished itself through the talents and accomplishments of its members who have helped make Brockton High School one of the finer secondary schools in the Commonwealth.

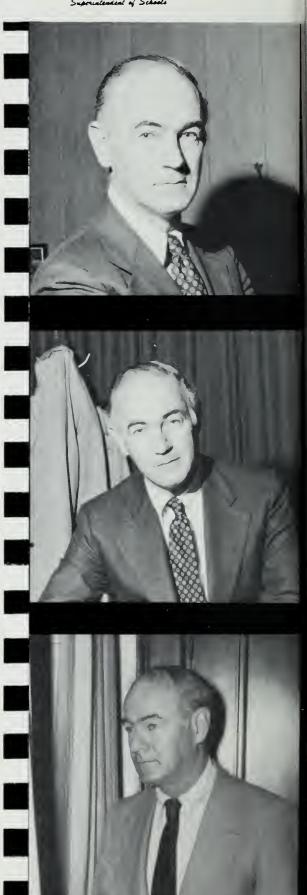

The spirit of action and achievement of the Class of 1982 has established a rich heritage at Brockton High School which can serve as a model for future classes and your own individual careers.

Yours sincerely,

"Commencement" and "Graduation" These are the two most frequently used words heard in American in early June of each year. Commencement is a beginning, a beginning of a new part of one's life, a beginning of employment, of higher studies, adulthood really. Graduation is literally a stepping stone, a stepping stone to the more beautiful things in life.

It is our hope at Brockton High School that you avail yourselves of the skills and knowledge that you have acquired over the past twelve years and use them profitably as stepping stones for a new beginning, the results of which will lead to a productive and fruitful life.

To the Class of 1982:

With the approach of graduation, it seems appropriate to reflect on the experiences of the past four years and perhaps to project on what the future may hold for each of you.

As a class, your accomplishments have been many and it has been my impression that you have had a good mix of conscientious effort along with healthy fun. We hope that your memories of Brockton High School will be mostly pleasant ones filled with the feeling of accomplishment. As for the future, we hope that we have fulfilled our obligations in assisting with your preparation for the many challenges you must face both academically and socially.

We are pleased to have had the opportunity to be included in a small part of your lives and we wish each of you Godspeed.

To the Class of 1982:

To graduate as defined by Merriam-Webster is "to receive ... a diploma; to pass from one stage of experience, proficiency, or prestige to a usually higher one." A multitude of experiences have occurred during your twleve years of formal education. Hopefully, many of these which are pleasant and rewarding will remain indelibly with you for life. You will remember the enduring friendships which have developed, the awards which you have received, the grasping of a difficult concept, the triumphant dramatic performance, and the winning team on which you played.

In regard to proficiency you have progressed from being a non-reader when arriving in grade one to gaining a mastery of written language. You can follow that recipe or dress pattern, solve a linear equation, and you have mastered that typewriter keyboard! Reading has enabled you to understand the disciplines, to relate past and present events, and to ponder about your future.

The prestige, the honor of this day, rightfully belongs to you as a reward for your achievements. Your earned diploma represents the culmination achievements. Your earned diploma represents the culmination of twelve years of dedication and perseverance. In the decade of the 1980's as you progress to the next higher level of development, meet the challenges which you encounter with confidence. Use your talents and abilities in a purposeful manner. Be independent, yet tolerant and concerned with others - learn from the balance and harmony in nature.

Wishing you every success in the future as I trust you will follow the motto: "Ever to excel."

Congratulations -

On this occasion you have reached a milestone in your life. You have succeeded, by graduating, a twelve year challenge which has prepared you for future endeavors. I trust that your past school experiences and especially those at Brockton High School have given you the knowledge and skills to meet the future with achievement and happiness. As you prepare for the next dimension, it is important that you believe in yourself and begin to establish life objectives so that your abilities and energies will be directed in a meaningful way. There will be times when your journey will take you off course. Hopefully the fortitude you possess by your self-belief will convert those valleys of disappointment to mountains of satisfaction and be consistent with your personal life objectives.

Good luck and my blessings go with you.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Throughout the past four years the Class of '82 has seen a great deal of change: both internally and externally. Probably one of the greatest attributes of the Senior Class, however, has been its ability to move with those changes.

The most important goal of the Senior Class is one that has been exemplified by its officers and Executive Committee members. That is, they have demonstrated that kind of level-headed togetherness which gets things done. This unity is vital to the successful accomplishment of any endeavor, and it has enabled our class to do a great deal.

But the Senior Class Officers and Executive Committee members do not merely set examples for others to follow. Rather, they have learned an ever-valuable lesson life: that one cannot always do it alone. They have learned camaraderie community, and compassion.

-Patrick Cesarini '82

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Top to Bottom: Larry Sack, Gina DiGravio, Mary Santry, Pat Cesarini, Hugh McLaughlin, John Buckley, Linda Baroncelli, Robin Scheuer, Lisa Montagano, Sue Doherty, Jan Sharkansky, Tricia Ryan.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Top to Bottom: Pat Desarini, Pres.; Mary Santry, Vice-Pres.; Eileen Cashin, Sec.; Hugh McLaughlin, Tres.

The Class of 1983's junior year was a great success thanks to the enthusiasm of the student body and efficiency of the Class of 1983 student government. Our major income this year was from the Junior Prom featuring "Scout," and our annual dance featuring the talented bands "Triton" and "Sydrome". Fundraisers such as the annual Christmas cake sale, Thanksgiving hat sale, and flower sales brought in additional funds to start us off with a great standing in the treasury for our senior year.

-Mia Condon

Every class of Brockton High has certain goals which it would like to reach. The goals of every class include building up a large treasury which pay for such things as the senior class gift, help lower the costs of proms, and aid the class in many ways. The sophomore class officers provide the leadership and dedication necessary for this to be accomplished. The class officers also plan interesting and fund raising activities for respective class. The sophomore class is trying to reach these goals under the leadership of their class officers as they prepare for their two most exciting years at Brockton High School.

-Joanne Carlson

Although the Freshman Class is in their first year at Brockton High, they have taken positive steps toward their future goals. The Class Officers and Executive Committee, as their first objective, sets up a constitution by which their class abides. They also raise money for their Junior and Senior Proms and also their class gift. They, the freshmen, will soon be what we are now, the leaders of Brockton High. We wish them all good luck.

-Bob Boudreau '82 Robin Sheehan '82

CLASS OFFICERS: Bridgette Norton, Pres.; Dave Ricardi, Tres.; Amy Cesarini, Vice-Pres.; Kriss Kasis, Sec.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Amy Ippilito, Michelle Delay, Nancy Sheridan, Susan Giannouloudis, Wayne Silverman

As students of an extremely large high school, we are faced with the problems of conveying our feelings to school administrators. However, Brockton High has overcome this problem through the Student Senate. The Senate, which is composed of two Senators from each grade of every house, dictates the views of the students to the administration of the school. Thanks to this group of hard working, dedicated people the student population possesses a strong voice in school affairs.

THE PERMANENT PRESS

Under the leadership of Mary Meaden and Eleanor Swift as Co-Editors in Chief. THE PERMANENT PRESS has been a vital part of keeping students and teachers alike informed of what's happening at Brockton High School.

After bouncing back from near financial ruin during the 1979-1980 school year. The Permanent Press has become a well respected student publication. The main concern of the newspaper is to get features and news that the faculty and students would be interested in, and they've fulfilled these goals.

The Permanent Press is looking forward to continuing many years into the future.

Students are inducted into the National Honor Society during both their Junior and Senior years. Selections are made based upon academic standing, participation in extra curricular activities and character. The selections are made by a group of teachers, guidance counselors, and housemasters. Parents and students are invited to an induction ceremony which includes the presentation of a pin to each new member and their parents. The Honor Society elects four officers who are made responsible for the organization of the meetings.

Brockton High has been well represented by its drama club. Last year the club won the all-state cast/ensemble award for its performance of the one act play Wings. This year they will enter again with a one act version of Shakespeare's As You Like It. After last year's memorable presentation of the musical Mame, we can all look forward to this spring's performance. The drama club is made up of many talented seniors. The actors, the directors, the set designers, the dancers and the technicians; all are essential to the great success this group has enjoyed.

STAGE CREW

The stage crew at Brockton High School is a very important part of all productions. They are involved in the designing and constructing of sets, and all the back stage work which is done for the plays and musicals presented at BHS. They spend many long and hard hours painting, cutting, glueing, and the overall constructing of each set.

Because of our New England location skiing is readily available, however, many students would still not have the opportunity if it were not for the Ski Club. They plan trips to local ski areas at reasonable cost. It gives the chance for interested students to participate in their favorite winter sport. The ski club also plans one major European Ski Trip each yea.

There are many clubs at BHS which provide its members with fun activities, but there are few organizations which also help to improve the environment of the community. The Ecology Club is one such organization. This club provides students with the opportunity to ski, to hike, and to climb. This club gives people the chance to have a great time. At the same time, it teaches students about ecology and working to improve the environment.

The Distributive Education Club (D.E.C.A.) works with advisor Mr. Faherty to operate the school store that is located in the core building. Through classroom learning, students are given the chance to obtain firsthand experience in the field of retailing. Students learn about the theories behind retailing as well as the skills of working well with customers. The D.E.C.A. store makes available to the students of Brockton High everything from clothing to greeting cards. Its success is a direct reflection on the students who are members of this club.

Math Club advisor Mr. Pedicini has often said that "the math club is the most difficult team to make in the school." This may very well be true. Of the more than 1,000 seniors in our school, only five may be members of the varsity team. John Clifford, Maureen Waygan, Lee Hutchins, Steven Shapiro and Joe McCrae are the seniors that compete for this elite spot. The math club meets once a week, to discuss different problems. Each month it travels to a host school to compete with seven other teams. During these meets the students are challenged with math problems ranging in difficulty. The team is in a tough league, but has enjoyed great success in the past.

There are many artistically talented students at BHS, and the Art Club provides the opportunity for these people to meet together. The club plans many interesting field trips to area colleges, museums and art exhibits. They also work on many different art projects which help to develop their talents. The Art Club is a great organization for those students interested in art at BHS.

There are bands at BHS which serve as the outlet for students who play a musical instrument, but BHS also has an outlet for students interested in vocals. The Chorus is a large group which is broken down to smaller groups which entertain in the community. The Chorus is also involved with the Annual Christmas Concert and other activities.

Members of the club may participate in many of the aspects of radio programming by working for WBHS-Radio, the high school's closed circuit radio station. Music, news, and special announcements are produced and broadcast by students who work for the station.

For those students whose interests lean towards television, participation in studio and remote television production at B.H.S. is available to them. Club members have been involved in a number of productions including the Occupational Education Department's "Deals on Wheels" and "The Centennial Musical Review". The 1981-82 Jazz Band Ensemble under the direction of Vincent Macrina is a very dedicated and hard-working group of high school musicians. These musicians are selected on a competitive basis to ensure that each member has the ability to play the professional arrangements selected by Mr. Macrina.

The Jazz Band travels to area high schools, junior highs and elementary schools to perform. They also do benefit dances. They travel to competitions such as, the Bermuda trip last year and the trip to Montreal, Canada. The band played in competition this year and placed third in the Southeast District. They were also recommended for all-state.

The jazz band, since its start ten years ago by Mr. Macrina, has received acclaim from all levels. They play big band jazz, rock jazz, and classical jazz as well as other types of jazz.

We at Brockton High are fortunate to have one of the most dedicated and hard-working marching bands around. Under the direction of a new conductor, Mr. Macrina, the marching boxers have once again shown to the football fans that they enjoy what they do. The members of the 110 piece organization give it all they've got to put on a new and spectacular half-time show each week. This means practicing many hours after school and Saturday mornings to reach perfection. The main goal of the marching band is to go out and give the people what they want and with the effort of each and every individual the marching boxers accomplish this goal show after show.

The 1981-82 Cheerleading Squad consists of 17 members: 3 captains, 12 regulars, and 2 alternates. We cheer for both football and basketball. We have practices 3 times a week, with one late practice on Thursdays and two band practices on Friday and Saturday morning.

Our squad this year was lucky enough to cheer

Our squad this year was lucky enough to cheer our football team on to another Super Bowl Berth. We also participated in various "Pride is Alive" activities, including a pep rally the day before the Super Bowl.

We are very proud of our accomplishments and feel that this is one of the best cheerleading squads ever to cheer at Brockton High School.

The 1981 Football Team compiled a record of 9-1 this season. However, there was much more than a win-lose record involved. The team had set their goals high in preseason. They wanted to bring their school and city great honor by continuing the winning tradition that is a part of Brockton Football.

A mid-season loss saddened not only the tem, but their fellow school mates, and fans also.

This season was an example of a group of players that accepted the challenge of carrying on a beautiful tradition. The 1981-82 football team wishes to thank their fans and coaches for helping them carry on this tradition. It was a true honor that every player will cherish forever.

We hand the ball to the team of '83 with pride and confidence and wish to say it is important to "Love the game beyond its glory."

GIRLS' SWIMMING

throughout the entire fall season, the Girl's Swim Team completed another successful year backed up by a strong team. Coach O'Neill, along with tri-captains, Karen Galante, Sharon Galante, and Judy Totte, led the team to capture the Surburban League Title for the fifth consecutive year in a row. This year's Surburban League All-Stars comprise of the captains, and Sue Costello, Sue Doherty, Karen Hartsell, Laurie Miller, Julie Churbuck, Patty Duggan, Cheryl Barron, and Cindy Kennedy.

One of the biggest meets faced by the Girl's Swim Team was against Newton, whose team consisted of twice as many swimmers. Fortunately, with the time and effort put in by the swimmers, we were able to defeat Newton with the strength and talent of the Girl's 1981-82 Swim Team.

This year the Boy's Cross Country Team got off to a slow start losing their first two meets. They ended their season on a fine note winning the remaining six meets. Almost all of the boy's returned from last year, including seniors, Marshall Anderson, Kevin Conefrey, David Bates, and John Murray. GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

This year the Girl's Cross Country team was smaller than usual. After losing a lot of good runners within the past few years, the team is just starting to mature again. The majority of the squad was made up of mostly underclassmen with only three returning seniors: Beth Rosen, Heather Irving, and Kathy Scanlon. The team is running on a cycle and it is just starting to grow again. With new runners and hard work, Brockton should develop a fine team.

Behind the first year coaching of William Poliseno, the Boxer Soccer Team completed its season with a record of 12 wins, 4 losses, 1 tie, thus finishing in second place in the Suburban League. Qualifying for the Eastern Mass Tourney the past four years, the Boxers are one of the most consistent teams in the area. This year, losing a tough Quarter-Final round game to number 1 rated Wellesley 3-0, Coach Poliseno commended the play of his team by saying that they played their best game of the entire season, and just faced Teamwork is the word to describe the 1981-82 Girl's Soccer Team! With a season's record of 14-4-1, (one unfortunate loss to Duxbury), the Girl's Soccer Team completed a successful season with the coaching of Mr. Fortin. The team's seniors were comprised of Sue Perez and Anne Pecevich, (both played the wings), Mimi Uhlman, who played stopper, and Adalia Karim.

This year's League All-Stars included Kim Kelley and Heidi Schuberth, both switched off playing center forward to center halfback, and Anne Pecevich. This year's All-Scholastics included, Kim Kelley and Heidi Schuberth.

However next year looks much more promising because the team will possess the experience and desire to reclaim this winning tradition.

"Should I shoot?"

In the past, the Brockton High Boy's Basketball team's results have often been disappointing, but this year's team appears to be much more promising. They possess a mix of returning varsity players and new comers to the varsity squad. Coach Boutin rightfully has high hopes for this impressive Boxer squad.

The 1981-82 girl's basket-ball team has only two returning varsity players, but they hope to overcome the lack of experience with an abundance of enthusiasm. Hopefully this enthusiasm will carry the Boxerettes to a winning season which past teams have failed to do. But this lack of experience and a lack of winning tradition does not interfere with the team's desire to start a new winning tradition.

The 1981-82 season proved to be the most successful one that the girl's team has had in some time. By winning all but one competition, the team placed second in the Suburban League with a season average of 118.70. In the South Sectional State Competition the team placed second, an honor attributed to the great unity that the team possessed this year.

The team was led by senior captain Andrea Kelly, a four-year varsity competitor who was a consistently strong competitor throughout the season. Junior, Sue Bagas represented the team in the state individual competition. Michelle Young, Michelle Dincecco, Jamie Peznola, Dina Hadges, and Cheryl Pepi proved to be high scorers and shall be the backbone of the team in the years to come.

Running in the dark

The 1982 Boxer's Indoor Track Team. led by John Buckley, Marshall Anderson, Kenny Simmons and Ed Tage, started the new season in brilliant form, somewhat reminiscent of former years in which Mike Sullivan and Owen O'Connor were leaders of the pack.

The dominant and consistent running of seniors, John Buckley, Marshall Anderson, Ronnie Wheaton, Kenny Simmons, and Hugh McLaughlin. The team aided by awesome Junior Sean Colgen, has helped the Boxers to a 5-1 record and put them on the verge of winning yet another, suburban league championship.

Good luck to the Boxers in the future seasons and may they continue in this winning tradition the Brockton Boxers have attained.

GIRLS' INDOOR TRACK

The girls indoor track team has been one of the most successful teams at Brockton High in the past. They have enjoyed several undefeated seasons. This year, the girls kept a winning record, losing only two times in very close contests. Aside from being a strength in the Suburban League, the girls team has enjoyed success at the statewide level. Seniors Adalia Kari and Patricia Bates have both placed at the state meets and the half mile relay team was rated fourth in the country.

It's been an impressive year for the B.H.S. Wrestling Team. Coach Jack Johnson and Captain G. Gouveia saw close tournaments and a final team score of nine wins and three losses. Among the tournaments was, The Lowell Tournament where the team placed fourth out of twenty-five, The Catholic Memorial Tournament, where the team placed third out of fifteen, and fifth out of eight at The Milton Academy Tournament, which featured the National Prep-School Champs, Blair Academy.

Outstanding members are, Capt. Geoff Gouveia, Charlie Roderique, Ed Cashman, Shawn Barth, Richie Dunn, Steven Dunn, and Mike Sarantopoulos.

The 1981-1982 Brockton High Hockey Team is one team coach Bob D'Arcy will never forget. The enthusiasm, pride and team work paid off in their 12-5-1 record. One point stopped them from going to the state tournament. The "States" was a game they worked long and hard for, but a mere three seconds shattered their hope into a fading memory.

Next year's team will miss several great senior players, such as Steve Burke (a top 10 Suburban League leading scored). Jon Goldstein (Suburban League's best defenseman) and John McDonald (Suburban League's lead scorer). Others will also be missed such as, Arty Georgantas, Mike Berolini and Dave Caldwell.

Coach D'Arcy is relying on returning juniors Bill Allen, Mark Peterson, and Chuch Tuite (Globe poles top ten scorer), to lead the team into a good season.

Pondering the situation

With a season's record of twenty wins and four losses. the 1980-1981 B.H.S. Baseball Team captured the State Championship after defeating Lowell, 8-1. Contributing seniors, such as, Jimmy Malcolm (who brought in the most R.B.I.'s), Carl Hoff and Joe Turcotte (all with two homeruns each), benefited the team's task in winning the Championship. Other seniors such as Dave Barry, with a pitching record of 9-1. Don Dunklee, catcher, Bobby Smith, third base, Sanford McMurtry, centerfield, and John Hancock Left field (who carried the cock, left field (who earned the highest batting average in the Suburban League of over 400), revealed their talent for baseball by helping the Boxers earn the State Championship.

Returning players for the 1981-1982 season include, Rick Collett and Scott Droukas, pitching. John MacDonald in the outfield, Kevin Croker on third base and shortstop, and Chuck Tartaglia catching. These upcoming seniors are optimistic about next season, and hope they are able to capture the State Championship once more for B.H.S.

There are two words to describe last years girl's tennis team, tough and determined. What else could be said with such players as Karen Rap-chuck, who gave her all and, with doubles teams paired up such as Jane Rosen and Debbi Freeman, and Tracy Pelloquin and Maria Carrol who not only had to rely on themselves to play well, but their partners. This success, of course, is greatly attributed to the time and dedication Coach Sanders, an opti- "Hurry. I don't have all day" mist if there ever was one, gave to the team.

t row: P. Bonfilio, S. Gravelis, D. Greenblatt, M. Eason, M. Shapiro, S. Rider. 2nd row: Asst. Coach, Coach Doug Mildram, W. ash, C. Richardson, E. Deveney, P. MacDonald

Under the coaching of Douglas Mildram, the Boy's Tennis Team completed their 1981 season with a record of 6-6. The team, consisting of an equal amount of juniors and seniors, put much time and effort into their matches. Singles were played by Ed Deveney, Mike Eason, Wayne Nash and Peter Bonfilio. Doubles were played by Craig Richardson and Dana Greenblatt, and Scott Rider and Mike Shapiro.

Three tennis players who earned League All-Star Titles, were Mike Eason. Mike Shapiro, and Scott Rider. Juniors, such as Mike Shapiro, Wayne Nash, Peter Bonfilio and Scott Rider, foreshadow the success of the team's 1982 spring season.

Valiquette, K. Fairfield, D. Cahill, M. Welch, C. Adams, Mr. O'Donnell, coach

The word that may best describe the performance of the girl's outdoor track team in the past is consistency. The team has had five undefeated seasons of the past seven seasons that Jim O'Donnell has been coaching. This year the girls suffered some close losses to end up with a record of 6-3-0. Several seniors were outstanding performers. Adalia Karim and patty Bates led the sprints. Kathy Scanlon and Heather Irving, also sprinters, helped provide a balance to the strength of the team. The distance crew, made up of mostly juniors and sophomores, remained strong despite the recent loss of several key run-ners. The girls and Coach O'Donnell look forward to another successful season in the future.

The Brockton Spring Track Team had an outstanding season with a 7-1 record. The Spring Track Team gave a fighting season for their competitors. The seniors, with the help of their teammates, had an excellent year for themselves. There were outstanding events such as, the 50 yd. dash, run by Jim Moreland and Jay McGee with times of 5.4 and 5.5 seconds. With these times, they were able to qualify to run in the Invitationals and States. Jim Moreland ran in the states and came in sixth place over all.

The relay team consisted of Jay McGee, John Bender, Kenton Toney and Jim Moreland. Later on in the season substitutes came in for Jim Moreland: First, Mark Boucher, then Ed Myers. The relay team became unbeatable, and did very well in the coaches' invitationals.

The mile relay team was made up of four runners, M. Thongpaithoon, R. Wheaton, J. Buckley, and H. McLaughlin. The one mile was run by J. Munies and P. McNulty, two more aggressive workers for the team.

This season was extremely successful and the team hopes to have more. With the defense of the upcoming juniors and seniors, the team will have its glory

The Junior Prom was held on April 3, 1981, which fell early in the spring of our Junior year.

Much time and effort went into the preparation of that special night. It was a lot of hard work for the Executive Committee to plan, but also for the individuals who attended this occasion.

Soon Friday, April 3rd. arrived. The Prom started at 6:30 and since it was held at Lantana in Randolph, much time was needed so we could get ready.

After all the pictures were taken by parents, relatives, and friends, everyone was on their way. There was time for socializing once everyone arrived and then, not before long, the band. Scout, played and dinner was served.

For dinner there was the following: chilled fresh fruit cup, tossed green salad, boneless breast of chicken, pie with strawberries, and of course rolls and butter.

Along with the meal, everyone was given a booklet and a pin with the prom date, theme song, and band inscribed on it inscribed on it.

After dinner, everyone was out on the dance floor. During the time of dancing, the photographer was available to take the formal prom

At the close of the evening, the couples went out on the floor for the last dance to "Imagine" which had been chosen as the prom

The BHS Drama Club's opening productions for the 1981-82 season were, "The Night of January 16th", by Ayn Rand and "Skungpoomery" by Ken Campbell which were presented on December 11th and 12th.

"The Night of January 16th", was under the direction of Carol McCormack, and Mr. Richards, technical director. It was about the murder of Bjorn Faulkner, a wealthy dictator of the business world. Karen Andre, his faithful lover/secretary, played by Tara Mooney is the defendent. Defending Karen Andre in a "brilliant courtroom presentation" is DA Stevens played by Gigi Tsaganis. The prosecutor, DA Flint, was played by Lee Rafkin. Presiding at the trial is Judge Margaret Heath played by Julia Kuliesh.

Kolleen O'Connor played the victim's wife. Nancy Lee Faulkner: Gordon played by Julia Kuliesh.

Kolleen O'Connor played the victim's wife, Nancy Lee Faulkner; Gordon Schelffer played John Graham Whitfield, her strong-willed father; and Tom Estey is the defendents gangster boyfriend, Larry Regan.

Other witnesses include scholarly Dr. Kirkland played by Jeff Aronofsky; cleaning lady Mrs. John Hutchins played by Roni Bizinkauskas; the detective Homer Van Fleet played by Gordon Jackson; patrolman Elmer Sweeney played by John Cahill; Bjorn Faulkner's housekeeper Magda Svenson played by Kris Norcross; handwriting expert Jane Chandler played by Lisa Priest; Faulkner's secretary Sigurd Junquist played by Michael O'Donnell; and terpsichorian Roberta Van Rensalear played by Cheryl Mendleson.

Also participating in the courtroom drama were Mary Meadonas, the clerk of courts; Tim Parker as the bailiff; Faith Zoino, court stenographer; Nancy Clark as the prison matron; and Kris Liatsos. DA Flint's secretary.

Each night of performance the jury was selected from the audience, which determined the verdict of Karen Andre. Each of the nights of the production Karen Andre was found not guilty for the murder of Bjorn Faulkner. All the cast should be praised for its outstanding performance in presenting "The Night of January 16th."

Along with "Night of January 16th", the Drama Club also presented the January 16th."

Along with "Night of January 16th", the Drama Club also presented the English comedy-farce "Skungpoomery" by Ken Campbell. This piece of zaniness which was presented to an enthusiastic crowd each night of performance brought laughter to each who saw it.

The play was brought alive with the performance of BHS Drama Club members Stephen Colombo as police-officer Nicholas Wibble; Ellie Swift as Mrs. Wibble; Lewis Silverman as Twoo: Jon Curelop played Mr. Humbottom: Jeanette Ewing played Lady Inspector Snatchem: Edward Toomey played Seargent Stuff, and finally rounding out the cast John Stadleman who played Police-Officer Bunkett.

"Skungpoomery" was presented under the direction of Carol Thomas, Susan Thomas, assisting, and student directors Andrea Kelly and Sarah Murphy.

The last year's the best; So this is what I hear. The best of what? I ask As I wipe a fallen tear. I go through this last year With an uncertain amount of dread: What will become of my tomorrow? What is planned ahead? My friends that I've grown close to Will soon be on their own. And I too will be leaving But to where shall I roam? With one foot out the door I hesitate with delay Is this what I want from life Eight hours, pain and the pay? There must be more to it. Than just mechanical moves. I want to live my life Not go through it like most poor souls. Adventure bubbles within me And I'll let nothing pass me I want to get out from under And fly to a mountain high There I will be content And there I hope to see My friends from long ago Come to visit me.

Brockton High School, with over five thousand students, is like a community within itself. This community is a reflection of a larger community, our nation. Current events: the fads, the expressions, the political feelings and the fashions, all are expressed in a unique way through the students.

The students of the fifties, a decade of relative peace and rational prosperity, were fun-loving and apathetic towards international problems. Cars, movies, and music were the major concern. With the turmoil of the sixties came a new breed. Teenagers questioned the establishment. Apathy left the schools. Fashion was casual, the music was philosophical and the gatherings were political. The seventies became an era of uncertainty. Watergate threw a shadow or corruption over the country. A recession began with the rise of prices. As a result people became more independent. Students seemed to reflect these feelings. Fads, such as jogging, were those which gave the message "this is a 'me' generation".

We will be the graduates of the class of 1982. We will become representatives of this new era, as the changes that have occurred among us are a result of developments in state-wide, nationwide and interantional news.

The students of the eighties have become increasingly aware of international conflicts. They realize that no matter how far away they seem, these events effect our lives. Most memorable of these events is the year long period in which 52 Americans were held hostage in Iran. A sense of great patriotism developed in our country, and in our school. Through T-shirts, bumperstickers and posters, we expressed our views. The activites of the Soviet Union have also been important news. Its intervention in Afghanistan was of a major concern to our country. As a result, President Carter made the decision to withdraw the U.S. team from Olympic competition. Some of us supported this decision, others opposed it. In 1980 it seemed that the American people were searching for a change. Inflation had risen, and the Iranian crisis had yet to be resolved. Ronald Reagan offered a change; where Carter had failed, he would succeed. Americans chose Reagan as their President in 1980 and with this change comes a new era.

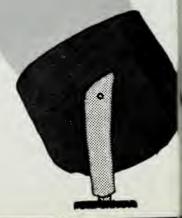

So far this era, the eighties, has yet to take on an identity of its own. There still remains the influence of the seventies, concern about inflation, remnants of disco, styles of dress and the emphasis on physical fitness. Yet there are new ideas that have begun to emerge.

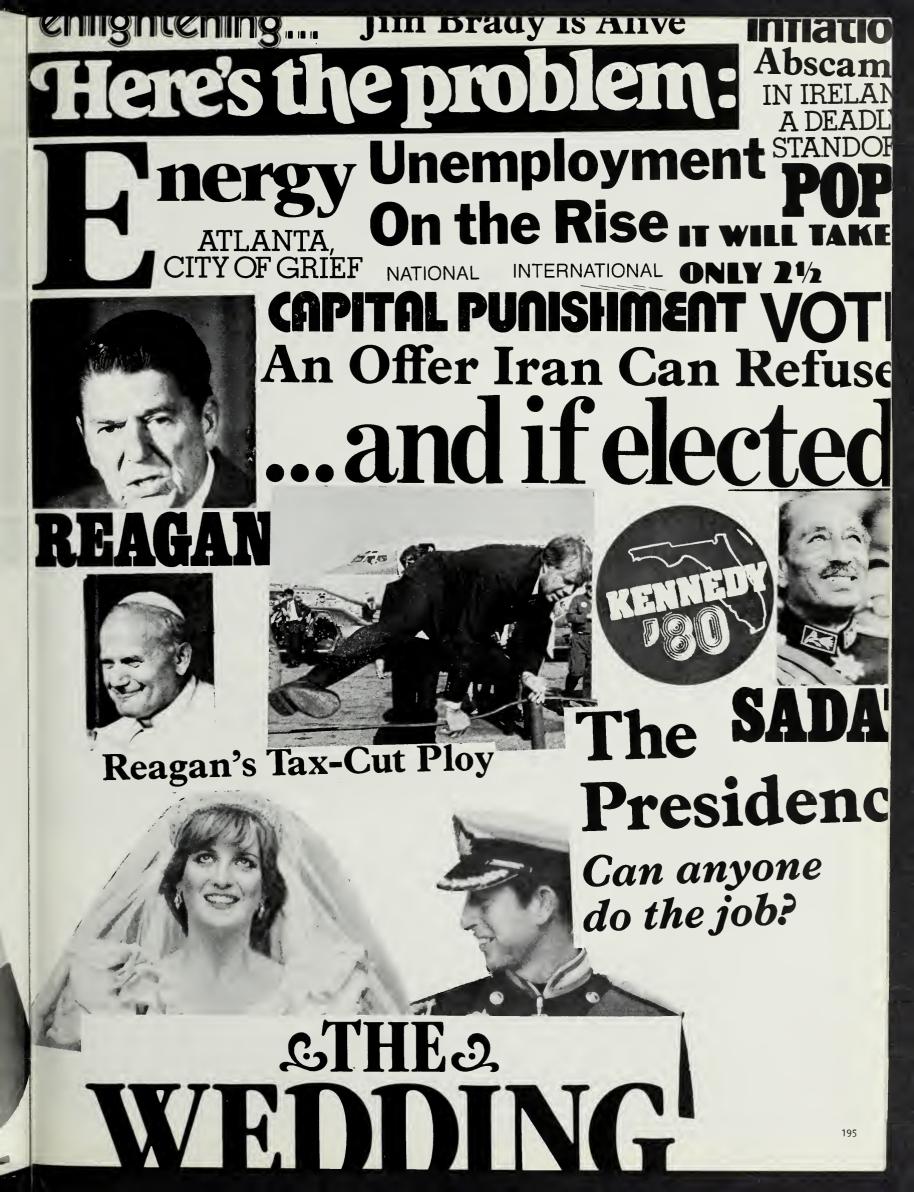

Current events of the eighties have been important in all of our lives. The shocking events, such as the attempt on the President's life, the unsuccessful assassination attempt of the Pope and the tragic death of John Lennon, have saddened us all. The international crisis, such as the situation in Northern Ireland and the strikes in Poland have made us more thankful that we live in the United States.

Many fads have developed in the past two years. Punk Rock, rollers-kating, knickers all these fads however short lived, will be remembered as part of the eighties.

BROCKTON • FALMOUTH • HARWICH PORT Since 1877—"People Like Security"

A Low-Cost Life Insurance Plan Especially Recommended for Students.

What Is The Plan?

This plan is designed to provide insurance protection at very low cost during your school years and the years after when you are becoming established in your vocation. The five year term policy provides life insurance protection for periods of five years and is automatically renewed every five years to age 70 regardless of your health. You may elect to convert to a cash value plan at any time up to age 65 without evidence of insurability. Cash value insurance would include such plans as STRAIGHT LIFE, 20 PAY MENT LIFE, LIFE PAID UP AT AGE 65, etc. This plan provides you with low-cost life insurance protection now and the flexibility of being able to convert to a permanent form of life insurance at a later date. Best of all, you will be starting a life insurance program with Savings Bank Life Insurance, known for its low cost and excellence:
